The Presenters

Anne and Brian Bercht are authors, speakers and relationship coaches. Together they have appeared on television programs across North America including Oprah, Montel Williams, Marriage Uncensored, American family and many more.

Their book, "My Husband's Affair Became the Best Thing That Ever Happened to Me" has become one of Canada's top selling books.

They have personally been trained by some of the most respected relationship experts in North America including John Gottman, John Gray, Harville Hendrix, Michelle Weiner-Davis, Prepare-Enrich and PREP (the Prevention and Relationship Enhancement Program). They have been certified to teach several of the aforementioned programs as well as others including the Personality Style Indicator, and other assessments by Consulting Resource Group International.

This year, for the 4th consecutive year they presented a workshop for over 80 professional counselors at the annual Smart Marriages conference in Orlando, Florida.

Anne is the Director for the International Beyond Affairs Network, where she currently leads more than 90 support group leaders in 10 countries worldwide. In 2008, BAN received the Smart Marriages Impact Award, being recognized as one of the programs making the biggest impact to help marriages and families.

The achievement Brian and Anne are most proud of is the love, passion & commitment they share in their own marriage. This year they celebrated their 28th wedding anniversary.

Today, they help many other couples to beat the odds and achieve the same love, passion, commitment, friendship and intimacy in their marriages.
