Lesson # 5

“Excuses, Excuses”

Hello Parents,

Today was our fifth lesson from our series, “Moses Is Born”. We learned that Moses asked God what he should do if the king didn’t believe him. Then God asked Moses what was in his hand and Moses told him a staff. God told Moses to throw it to the ground and he did. It turned into a snake and Moses ran from it. Then God told Moses to take the snake by the tail and then He said that the people will believe Moses. Then God told Moses to reach into his coat and when Moses took his hand out with was leprous. God said if they don’t believe the first sign, they will the second. If they still don’t, then God told Moses to take some water from the Nile River and pour it on the ground so the water can turn to blood. God told him he was the one who gave speech and hearing and sight. He told Moses to go and he would help him. God said Moses would tell Aaron what to say and Aaron would speak it. God then told Moses to perform miraculous signs with his staff.
